

Tracy Desmarteaux, Biophora Senior Educator

Tracy Desmarteaux is a powerhouse in the medical esthetics industry. She is Partner and Senior Educator for Biophora Medical Skin Care where she dynamically trains medical aesthetic professionals, including doctors, nurses, and medical aestheticians on the full scope of the Biophora medical skin care line, as well as how to perform advanced treatments for all skin types and conditions. She is also a mentor for aesthetic spa owners who want to grow their businesses into new branches of service while offering effective marketing and sales strategies along with extraordinary customer care.

In addition, Tracy is owner and head medical aesthetician of Synergy Medispa in Montreal along with its associated branch; Académie Synergy Medispa where she is a certified educator of medical esthetic procedures and technologies. (a medical aesthetic training center Certified by APESEQ: Association des Professionnels en Électrolyse et Soins Esthétiques du Québec).

ANN Association nationale des naturopathes
NAN National Association of Naturopaths

Adding to this impressive list of enterprises, Tracy is a trained naturopath certified by the National Association of Naturopaths, NP (ANN/NAN).

Her extensive career as a Medical Esthetician started with Dr. Robin Billick, Chief of Dermatology at Montreal's Jewish General Hospital. He recognized Tracy's passion and keen aptitude for medical aesthetics and took her under his wing—mentoring and training her for over five years. For the past twenty years, Tracy has trained with top plastic surgeons and is certified in every kind of advanced-medical aesthetic treatment to come to market. She has been called on to test new treatments with leading companies and professionals where she has gleaned a unique understanding of which technologies are the safest and most effective. Her linear evolution with technological advancements has made her a leading expert in the field. For over two decades, Tracy has not only earned the trust and respect of her clients, but that of her peers and industry professionals throughout Quebec and across Canada as a Clinical Educator and Consultant for esteemed companies including Syneron-Candela, Endor Technologies, Slim Wave, Biophora Medical Skin Care, and the renowned post-treatment camouflage foundation, Oxygenetix.

With utmost care and respect, it's Tracy's mission to help as many people as possible to become the best versions of themselves and discover their inner and outer beauty. She has honed the skills of active listening, assessing, and prescribing the ideal treatment protocols for her clients and the aesthetic professionals she educates. Her commitment to excellence, dedicated integrity, and focused passion for her work form the backbone of her training and teaching philosophy.
